

SPIRIT OF THE COMPETITION AWARD

Summary

The Spirit of the Competition trophy is awarded annually at the International Tree Climbing Championship.

It is awarded to, and held for one year by, the competitor with the most overall votes from the ITCC officials at each station.

Each station's head judge consults with the other judges, scorers, timekeepers, and technicians for that station and nominates a first- and second-choice competitor who, in their opinion, by the manner in which they competed, personal character and attitude (wherever they were placed), best fulfills the following criteria:

- promotes a feeling of camaraderie among fellow competitors and volunteers;
- demonstrates a genuine interest in helping others do better;
- gives his or her best and gains from the experience; and
- enriches the event for everyone else present, by the manner in which he or she competed.

The award recipient should represent the "spirit of the competition" and uphold and promote the best traditions of the international tree climbing community.

The recipient must return the trophy in time for the following year's International Tree Climbing Championship.

In the event of a tie, the ITCC head judge will have a deciding vote.
